

Dear Johnny,

As the prompt, efficient, business-like secretary to the most Honorable Miss Roo Herty, I am answering your letter of May 8. According to the traditional la/kadaisical manner of WCSR I have just seen the referred to piece of communication.

You have, no doubt, already assumed that there would be no tape before last June, nor, as a matter of fact, before Sept. 21. It seems that our Miss Herty has let her studying slip to all time low last year; consequently, this year will be a fairly busy one for her. Also, This year is being devoted to making WCSR perfect and POPULAR.

All this means....we are not going to be able to send you any programs. We already are taping an hour program a week for our advertising.

Roo bends her sincere regret...Me too.

Sincerely,

Almeria Thompson
Exec. Secretary
